

21st Annual SAG Awards® Fact Sheet

Unique Atmosphere & Audience Appeal

The SAG Awards® ceremony takes place in an intimate dinner setting where film casts and TV casts alike are seated next to one another making for a unique and relaxed party atmosphere. Between bites, actors can mix and mingle with their friends and peers.

The evening is a fast and fun two hours packed with various elements:

- Surprises – Nobody in the audience knows which actors will tell their "stories" during the show's signature opening sequence until the ceremony begins.
- Emotion and humor – There is no telling what the actors will say or do onstage during their acceptance speeches.
- No host – There is no single host for the SAG Awards. Prominent actors introduce each award or film sequence.
- Debbie Reynolds– The beloved actor, singer, dancer, author, champion for the preservation of the artifacts of film history and for the understanding and treatment of mental illness will receive the SAG 51st Life Achievement Award for career achievement and humanitarian accomplishment. It is presented annually to an actor who fosters the "finest ideals of the acting profession."

Award Categories & Voting

The SAG Awards are a peer award, voted upon by more than 100,000 members of SAG-AFTRA.

There are 13 acting awards:

- Five for film, including awards for male & female lead actors, male & female supporting actors and ensemble.
- Eight for TV, including awards for male & female actors in drama series; male & female actors in comedy series, male & female actors in movies/miniseries and ensemble awards for drama and comedy series.

Recognizing that acting is a collaborative art, the SAG Awards include award categories for acting ensembles in film, television drama and television comedy. As a result, several other award-giving bodies now honor ensembles.

Honors for outstanding action performances by television and film stunt ensembles were instituted in 2008. These non-televised kudos are announced from the SAG Awards red carpet.

Studios, networks, actors and actors' representatives submit performances for consideration each year.

Nominations are decided by two panels selected annually in the spring through a random sample drawing from the 165,000 SAG-AFTRA members. A total of 2,200 members serve on the film nominating committee, with another 2,200 on the TV committee. After serving, members cannot serve on the same committee again for eight years.

The nominating committees cast their votes for the 21st Annual Screen Actors Guild Awards online and by paper ballot by Monday, Dec. 8, 2014 at noon (PT). The Guild's official teller is Integrity Voting Systems in Washington State. Nominations will be announced on Wednesday, Dec. 10, 2014, at the Pacific Design Center in West Hollywood by Ansel Elgort, star of the feature films The Fault in Our Stars and Divergent, and actress/director/producer and SAG Award® recipient Eva Longoria.

Voting information for the SAG Awards will be mailed to every active paid-up member of SAG-AFTRA across the country on December 16, 2014.

In keeping with the SAG Awards' commitment to sustainable practices, online voting is encouraged and paper ballots are available only upon request. Votes must be received at Integrity Voting Systems by Saturday, Jan. 23, 2015 at noon (PT). Results will be sealed until the envelopes are opened onstage on Jan. 25.
